JAY BRINGMAN BREAKS BACK; AUTO MISHAP

Jay W. Bringman, 67, of 151 York St., local insurance agent and retiring Democratic State committeeman, suffered a broken back and a deep laceration of the forehead Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock when the brakes of his car failed and the vehicle crashed into a drainage ditch wall a half mile of New Oxford.

Physicians told the family the broken back occurred "below the belt line" and that convalescence will be a matter of months.

Mrs. Bringman said visitors are not allowed at present.

Bringman visited his daughter, Mrs. Earl Basehoar, Littlestown R. 1, and her family, near the Hoffman Orphanage, and then decided to drive to New Oxford to meet with County Chairman Fred G. Klunk.

Mrs. Bringman said today that when her husband started to drive away from his daughter's home, one wheel dragged. Members of the Basehoar family shouted to Mr. Bringman and he, also feeling the drag on the vehicle, stopped the car. He then backed the auto and again attempted to drive forward. This time everything seemed to be operating properly.

When Bringman attempted to stop at the Lincoln Highway from the Bonneville-New Oxford Rd. the brakes failed to work and the car rolled onto the highway. Bringman drove it down an embankment.

State police estimated damage to Bringman's car at $500 and damage to the wall, the property of Charles Sponseller, New Oxford, at $50.

4 LATIMORE TWP. SCHOOLS BRING $7,070

Four Latimore Twp. schoolhouses were sold Saturday afternoon by the township school board for $7,070.

Public sales were held at the sites of all four of the schools which are to be abandoned. Sold separately at each school building were the blackboards, school bells, desks, stoves, oil burners, etc. All of the school buildings were described as "adaptable as dwellings."

The Mechanicsville or Bragtown schoolhouse, a brick structure with a drilled well a mile north of Latimore on a lot 102 by 168 by 165 by 168 feet, was sold to Clarence H. Sheaffer, Dillsburg R. 2, for $2,875. Sheaffer instructed that the deed should be made to the "Bermudian Bible Church, East Berlin R. 1."

The State Road School, about a mile northeast of York Springs along the Carlisle-Hanover Rd., was sold to Otis G. Faus, Mechanicsville R. 3, for $1,025. It is on a lot 160 by 207 by 161 feet and also is a brick building with a drilled well.

Harbold's School, three-fourths of a mile south of Latimore, was sold to Paul S. Kalbfell, Lancaster, for $1,450. It also is a brick building on a lot 102 by 168 by 165 by 168 feet.

The Blackberry School, about a mile north of Latimore, was sold to Eugene A. Reynolds, York Springs R. D., for $1,720. It also is a brick dwelling with drilled well on a lot 97 by 99 by 89.

Murder, Suicide Suspected In Death Of Two Brothers

THOMASVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The state police today pressed an investigation into the fatal shooting of two brothers whose frozen bodies were found on farm land near this York County community.

The blood-covered bodies of Lester Gruver, 28, and his brother, Daniel, 19, were found over the weekend by neighbors. They had been reported missing since early Thursday.

Cpl. David K. James of the York state police said the shootings "appear to be a case of fratricide and suicide." But he added the investigation was continuing.

Motive Not Known

"As of now, we have no indications to prove otherwise," said James. "The motive for it, however, is known to God alone."

From the evidence so far, he added, "I would say Daniel shot Lester and then killed himself."

The brothers were two of 12 children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gruver, Thomasville R. 1.

Rifle Found

Dr. Thomas M. Hart, county coroner, said Lester had been shot in the back and Daniel in the forehead. He estimated the time of death as Thursday.

James said a .22 caliber rifle

Mrs. Earl Shears, Gettysburg R. 3, represents Pennsylvania in the "Cured Cancer Album" presented by the American Cancer Society to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at a White House ceremony today. She is among more than 50 persons, all of whom have been cured of cancer for five years or more, who are pictured in this special album.

The representatives were selected by the various state divisions of the society to represent more than 1,000,000 living Americans who have been cured of cancer. Mrs. Shears was selected for Pennsylvania as an "outstanding example of how important saving lives from cancer is."

She is president of the Gettysburg Council of Church Women, president of the Women's Society of World Service of her church, a Girl Scout leader and has been a Sunday School teacher for more than 36 years. She is the mother of two daughters and a son and the grandmother of three boys and a girl. During the summer months she operates a tourist court on Rt. 30, west of town. She is cured of two types of cancer, the last having been in 1953, the ACS said.

"A Real Example"

"All of us felt that Mrs. Shears is a real example of the worthiness of saving lives from cancer, the aim of the annual Crusade for Cancer Control," Lester Edwards, president of the Pennsylvania Division of the American Cancer Society, said. Mrs. Shears will be among the delegates attending the

2 Weekend Calls For Local Firemen

Gettysburg firemen responded to alarms twice over the weekend.

This morning at 12:40 o'clock they were called to the home of Duane Johnson, Gettysburg R. 1, the Littlestown Rd., the former home of Arthur Buehler. There they found a fire had started above the fireplace and burned back into the chimney. Damage was estimated at $200.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock they were called to the Topper service station, Harrisburg St., where a car owned by George Calvery had burst into flames, but the fire had been extinguished quickly and no damage was reported.

Local Youth Is Seeking Damages

Larry E. McMaster, 17, Gettysburg R. 5, is seeking damages as a result of an auto accident in Gettysburg November 23, 1959, according to a complaint in trespass filed for the youth and his father, John McMaster, by Attorneys Eugene R. Hartman and Robert B. Frey.

According to the papers filed in the office of the prothonotary, Larry McMaster was driving west on Hanover St. at 4:05 p.m. November 23 when Mary K. Dubbs, Gettysburg R. 5, pulled out from the stop sign at Fourth and Hanover St. and her car struck the front of the McMaster vehicle. Damages totaling $637.57 are claimed.

TO RETURN RUNAWAYS

Sheriff Dawson Miller and Raphael Klunk, Littlestown R. D., left this morning for Opelusaf, La., to return two young women, one aged 16 and the other 18, who reportedly ran away from home last Monday.

LITTLESTOWN GIRL, 12, BEST CWV SPEAKER

Twelve-year-old Margaret Altoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, Littlestown R. 1, and a Seventh grade student at St. Aloysius Catholic School, Littlestown, Sunday afternoon won first place in the spelling bee held at Bonneville under auspices of the Catholic War Veterans.

Winners of similar spelling bees in four county parochial schools—Gettysburg, Littlestown, New Oxford and Bonneville—participated in the event. Miss Altoff will now represent the county in a District 16 CWV spelling match at Columbia in April. The winners in the district events will compete at Gettysburg in June for the state title.

Jean Staub, New Oxford, was second. Gwendolyn Groft, also of New Oxford, third, and Mary Ann Irvin, Gettysburg, fourth.

Trophies And Medals

The first and second place winners were presented with trophies, the third and fourth place contestants with medals. All of the participants in the spelling bee received certificates.

The contestants included: From St. Aloysius, Littlestown, Margaret Altoff, Faith Redding, Mary Rang and James Weaver; St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg, James Sneeringer, Michael Flynn, Thomas Oyler and Mary Ann Irvin; Immaculate Conception, New Oxford; Gwendolyn Groft, Jean Claub, Mary Ann Sneeringer and Dolores Hockensmith; St. Joseph's, Bonneville, Judith Clabaugh, Raymond Orndorff, Elaine Weisbar, Margaret Strassbaugh.

FR. FORGENG IS INSTALLED

The Rev. Louis W. Forgen, former assistant pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here, was installed Sunday evening as the pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Bonneville. He had been assigned there recently by Bishop George L. Leech from Our Lady of Lourdes Church at Enola.

At Bonneville he succeeds the Rev. Fr. Louis J. Krichen, pastor of the church for 25 years, who resigned recently because of ill health.

The church was filled for the installation ceremony which was conducted at 7:30 o'clock by Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, McSherrytown, dean of the diocese.

There was a brief talk by Msgr. McGee and then by Fr. Forgen and the service concluded with the benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Visiting priests present for the installation included the Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane of Gettysburg, Fr. John Bolen of Conewago, Fr. Joseph T. Keely, Waynesboro, and Fr. Joseph Braubitz, Paradise Protectors.

Mrs. Livingston Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Mary Grace Livingston, 42, Gettysburg R. 2, wife of John H. Livingston, died at the Warner Hospital this morning at 5 o'clock where she had been a patient for four days.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Dora (Bigham) Bollinger, Gettysburg, and the late Harry H. Bollinger. In addition to her mother and husband, the deceased is survived by nine brothers and sisters: Mrs. Robert Stoner, Mrs. Francis Wenschoff, Mrs. Mildred Emory, Mrs. Lawrence Huff, Mrs. Rosabelle Hankey and Albert Bollinger, all of Gettysburg; Robert Bollinger, Mt. Holly Springs; Crawford Bollinger, and Mrs. Blaine Shindler, both of Fairfield.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Wilson Funeral Home, Fairfield, with her pastor, the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Two More Deer Killed By Cars

Two more deer were killed by traffic on the Emmitsburg Rd. in the Lee-Meade Inn-Rose Garden Courts section and State Game Protector Paul F. Glenn turned the venison over to the county home. At least 10 deer have been killed by cars in that area in the last few weeks.

About 6:45 o'clock Richard A. Weaver, 217 Willow St., Hanover, was traveling toward Gettysburg when his car struck and killed a deer with $150 damage to his car. At 9 p.m. a truck struck and killed a deer in the same section but no damage was reported.

Coed Who Was Unconscious 6 Weeks Was Hostess At Dinner For Doctor, Nurses

Miss Alanna Higgins, 20, of Melba, Long Island, Saturday evening saw for the first time Dr. Gerald Doo and nurses at the Warner Hospital who treated her for 10 days after an automobile accident last October 25.

The young woman, a student at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, was in a coma during her stay at the Warner Hospital here. She was removed November 4 to the University of Maryland Hospital, Baltimore, where she continued unconscious for more than six weeks.

Her father, Robert J. Higgins, said at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday that his daughter is recovering nicely from a broken right leg, broken jaw, fractured skull, broken collar bone and internal injuries suffered in the crash south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. near the Lee-Meade Inn.

She walks with a cane and reports to the University of Maryland Hospital for regular examinations. She was discharged from the Baltimore hospital January 11.

The trip here followed a visit to the hospital earlier last week.

MISS COBLE IS SELECTED APPLE QUEEN

Miss Edna Jane Coble, 16-year-old Biglerville High School Junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet N. Coble, Aspers R. 1, was chosen as Adams County's 1960 Apple Blossom Queen from among 15 contestants, all daughters of county fruitgrowers, at a contest held at the Arendtsville Elementary School Saturday evening. The runner-up was Miss Joyce Ripley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Riley, Aspers. She is a Sophomore at Biglerville High School.

Miss Coble will be officially crowned by Miss Joan M. Staub, the 1959 queen, at the county's annual festivities during the height of the apple blossom season early in May, the exact date to be announced later.

The contest was in charge of Mrs. Richard B. Trostle, chairman of the queen committee, with the following serving as judges: Mrs. Richard Redmond, Ken-Delle School of Beauty Culture, Harrisburg; Robert Malik, WGAL-TV, Lancaster, and Parker T. Cunningham, manager, WGCT, Gettysburg.

Three Judges

The participants were based on general intelligence, photogenic qualities, appearance and attractiveness in street and formal attire and knowledge of the apple industry. Mrs. William M. Lott conducted the interviews in connection with one phase of the contest.

Added features of the program were the Biglerville High School dance band under the direction of Harold W. Sanders; a baton twirling exhibition by Linda Kaspar, Camp Hill, and a tap and ballet dance routine by Elaine Kaspar, Harrisburg. In addition to reigning over Adams County's apple blossom celebration, the newly selected queen will participate throughout the year in various events relating to the promotion of Adams County apples. She will enter the state contest at York at the 1961 meeting of the Horticulture Association of Pennsylvania.

Will Greet Visitors

On April 30, May 1 and May 8 the queen and members of her court will greet 3,000 visitors who are coming into Adams County via "Iron Horse." A project of the Reading Company, the "Iron Horse" is a steam passenger train which will bring railroad enthusiasts and tourists from Allentown, Bethlehem and Philadelphia through part of the county's blossom area with Gettysburg as its destination.

HONORED AT BOSTON

Miss Barbara Darrah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Darrah, R. 1, has been elected to membership of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, at Boston University. Miss Darrah is a senior majoring in musicology in the College of Liberal Arts and graduated from Gettysburg High School with the class of 1956.

CARS IN COLLISION

Automobiles operated by Mrs. Helen A. Wright, 33, Baltimore, and Thomas R. Wolf, 30, of 106 W. King St., Littlestown, figured in a collision on Carlisle St. Friday at 8:25 p.m. Police estimated damage to the Wright auto at $90 and to the other car, which is owned by Mrs. Mary Utz, Littlestown R. 1, at $95.

President And Macmillan Hope For Agreement On Nuclear Ban With Russia

President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan arrived at Camp David, near Thurmont, Md., at 12:49 o'clock this afternoon and upon their arrival at Aspen Lodge President Eisenhower read the following statement to the assembled reporters and photographers explaining the objective of his conferences with the British statesman:

"The Prime Minister and I have agreed upon the following statement as we begin our conversations at Camp David.

"The main object of this meeting, of course, is to consider the present state of the negotiations in Geneva for the suspension of nuclear tests. We will be studying the various aspects of the most recent Soviet proposal and what this proposal means to the free world. This Geneva conference has rightly attracted the attention of the entire world. It is dealing with a subject of interest to all people and not just the three countries engaged in the negotiations.

"Certainly, both of us are aware of the importance of arriving at a properly safeguarded agreement with the Soviet Union on the suspension of nuclear tests, both because of the intrinsic importance of this objective and because of the impetus which it might give to progress in a broader field of the reduction and control of armaments.

"We are confident that out of our talks here will come agreement on how we proceed as partners in this all-important task of helping to bring a true and just peace to the world. With this explanation of the purpose of the meeting we are sure you will not expect to get too much in the way of spot news during the course of our discussions."

EMMITSBURG EX-BURGESS EXPIRES AT 86

George Calvin Naylor, 86, former burgess of Emmitsburg, died this morning at 4 o'clock at his home on E. Main St., Emmitsburg, slightly over 14 hours after the death of his wife, Mrs. Maud Estelle Naylor.

Both had been in ill health for some time and both were bedfast. Mrs. Naylor, aged 81, died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Her husband's death followed this morning at 4 o'clock.

The couple had resided in Emmitsburg for 35 years. Double funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Macmillan Begins Talks At Camp David This Afternoon

CAMP DAVID, Md. (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan began vital work at Camp David, Md., this afternoon on a compromise reply to Russia's latest proposal for a nuclear weapons test ban.

The chief executive and his long-time British friend flew by helicopter to this presidential retreat in the Catoctin Mountains, 65 miles from Washington. They arrived at 12:45 p.m. EST.

Macmillan had conferred with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter at the British embassy in Washington for 2½ hours before he joined Eisenhower at the White House for the flight to Camp David.

Prepare For Progress

It was understood that the embassy conference cleared the way for rapid progress at Camp David, not only on the nuclear test control problem, but also on a review of Berlin, disarmament and other major issues due to come up at

FIVE DIRECTORS ARE CHOSEN BY COOPERATIVE

Five directors were elected by 350 members of the Adams Electric Cooperative Saturday afternoon at the annual meeting of the cooperative at Gettysburg High School. Their families also were present for the affair.

Re-elected were Eimer E. Lauer, Dover; Howard S. Schwartz, Littlestown; V. Kyle Trout, Stewartstown, and Melvin J. Stanner, New Oxford. Benjamin Gayman, Blossville R. 1, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of a director.

Calvin A. Cluck, manager of the cooperative, told the members two new substations are to be constructed this summer to help meet demands for current, one between Gettysburg and Littlestown and the other at Swift Run along the Lincoln Highway east of here.

Using More Current

Use of electricity by the 6,790 members continues to grow steadily, Cluck reported. Where the average member used 57 kilowatt hours of electricity per month in 1943, now the average member uses 306 kilowatt hours per month. Correspondingly, where the average bimonthly electric bill was $11.50 in 1950, now the average bill is $19.50 each two months.

Cluck's report showed the cooperative has paid off $660,115.68 (Continued On Page 9)

AUTO DEALERS TAKE PART IN SALES "PUSH"

Auto dealers in Adams County are participating in a nationwide promotion of automobile sales for a two-week period beginning today.

The theme for the national event in which car dealers in hundreds of communities across the nation are participating is "It's National New Car Dealer Week—Buy Now." It includes a supplementary used car theme "National Car Dealer Week—Used Cars Have Never Been Better."

The auto sales promotion in which newspapers throughout the nation are cooperating has been designed to perform a service to the automotive industry by using the selling power of the "total selling medium," the newspaper, to generate more car sales.

The plan was introduced with great success last spring and its success was such that the 1960 promotion has been recommended by all major manufacturers and dealer associations and ever greater results are expected this year.

Plans for this year's two-week observance have been developed with the cooperation of the top executives of all of the automobile companies, their advertising agencies and the National Automobile Dealers' Association. Newspaper readers are urged to look for dealers' ads and the specially attractive offers they will be making during this two-week selling campaign.

The promotion is intended to effectively blanket the entire automotive field with special opportunities for used car dealers to increase their sales volume during this two-week period.

PLAN 4-H ROUNDUP

The Adams County 4-H Electric Club will hold a roundup Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., Assistant County Agent Duane G. TRIBUTE TO YOUTH PAID BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The youth of America have drawn a tribute and an expression of faith from President Eisenhower.

"I have an unshakable faith in the overwhelming majority of fine, earnest, high-spirited youngsters who comprise this rising generation of Americans," the President told the opening session Sunday night of the White House Conference on Youth and Children.

The 7,000 delegates, assembled in the gaily decorated fieldhouse of the University of Maryland, burst into applause. It was the only time they interrupted the President's 15-minute speech.

In a tribute, Eisenhower said "our children understand, as we did not in our own youthful years, the need — now approaching the absolute — for peace with justice."

"They possess a more intense intellectual curiosity than we of my age exercised," he said. "They are wise for their years and they are fast learning the relationship between physical and mental fitness on the one hand, and satisfaction in accomplishment on the other."

The President, a 69-year-old grandfather of four, prefaced his speech by explaining he was not "pretending to any expertness on questions of youth and children — except in the sense, that, within their own families, all grandfathers are experts on these matters."

Campus Minister Will Speak Here

Rev. Arthur R. Seyda, campus pastor at Pennsylvania State University, will speak Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock in Christ Chapel at Gettysburg College. The public is invited.

A native of Johnstown, Rev. Mr. Seyda graduated from Muhlenberg College and Mount Airy Seminary. He served as campus pastor at the University of Chicago and Northwestern University, where he took advanced studies in 1951-1955. He served as pastor of Nativity Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, 1955-59, and assumed the Penn State pastorate in September, 1959.

"WHEN I'M ALONE"

When I'm alone in the quiet... I spin a web of thought... capturing in reverie... things beyond being bought... things like the flower of true love... so wonderful and fair... and the steadfast faith of children... that's so beyond compare... I contemplate on things now past... and on things yet to be... warm is the feeling I derive... while in solitude I total up... my blessings great and small... the things taken for granted... that matter most of all... I gain a tender peace of mind... when I am alone... but like all else, it's borrowed time... I cannot call my own.

Mission To Open

A mission will be held in St. Aloysius Catholic Church beginning next Sunday, to continue for a full week, with morning and evening services and instructions, and to conclude on Palm Sunday. Missioner for the services will be the Rev. Fr. Lynch, who conducted the last parish mission several years ago. The pastor, the Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle, requested the parishioners at the morning masses on Sunday to curtail their other activities during Mission Week and to make every effort one of the morning masses and all of the evening service. The exact time for the services will be announced next Sunday.

The annual offering received each year on Laetare Sunday for the Bishop's Emergency and Relief Fund was taken up at the morning masses on Sunday. A letter of appeal was read from his excellency, the Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of Harrisburg, for this fund. Tonight there will be instructions for high school students at 7 p.m., and for adults at 8 p.m. The weekly public party will be held on Saturday in the parish hall, starting at 8 p.m. Thomas French is chairman of the committee in charge of general arrangements and Mrs. Thomas Collins heads the refreshment committee.

AP CHIEF OF BUREAU DIES ON SATURDAY

Leonard Unger was well-known in Gettysburg where he had been a frequent visitor. He was interested in the Gettysburg Battlefield and its preservation.

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP)—State officials, newsmen and other friends tonight will begin paying their last respects to Leonard A. Unger, Associated Press political writer and chief of the Harrisburg Bureau.

Unger's body will lie in state for viewing at the Chaikowski Funeral Home beginning tonight until Wednesday. A requiem mass will be held Wednesday at 10 A.M. in St. George's Roman Catholic Church. Burial will follow in the parish cemetery.

The 40-year-old veteran newspaperman was stricken Saturday with a heart attack at his Camp Hill home just outside Harrisburg. His wife, Florence, was with him when he died at Harrisburg Hospital shortly after being admitted. He had a rheumatic heart condition but appeared in good health.

Was Political Writer

Unger was one of the state's best known political writers. He joined the AP in Pittsburgh in 1943 after serving as city editor of his hometown paper, the Shenandoah Herald. He came to Harrisburg in 1945 and was named chief of the bureau in 1959.

Len's last byline was put on a story he wrote less than 24 hours before his sudden death. The story was released today. It told of a situation described as unprecedented in Pennsylvania history whereas delegates to the Democratic national convention ran on a pledge to support the voters' choice for president only to find no candidate listed on the preferential ballot.

Gov. David L. Lawrence, on learning of Unger's death, issued the following statement: "Leonard was a hardworking newspaperman, a man of deep integrity and fully devoted to his work of informing the public. His many friends, both in Harrisburg and all over Pennsylvania, will mourn his passing."

Other state officials and newspapermen expressed similar feelings. In addition to his widow, Unger is survived by a daughter, Susan, 10, and a son, Mark, 7; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Unger, Shenandoah; a sister, Miss Eleanor Unger, New York; and a brother, Anthony, a law student.

They were members of Paradise (Holtzschamm) Lutheran congregation and Sunday School. Interment will be in the Paradise Holtzschamm Union Cemetery. Rev. Carlton R. Howells will officiate at funeral services.

STOCKS UNEVEN

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved unevenly as trading slowed to a moderate pace early this afternoon.

Small gains and losses prevailed among the list of key stocks. A slight tendency toward the downside became apparent after midday.

Moderate gains by airlines, tobacco, utilities and scattered issues helped support the averages. Most major groups were mixed.

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—State civil defense officials were satisfied today that practice was beginning to make perfect as far as air raid drills were concerned. The officials considered Saturday's statewide drill the best they had staged so far.

Pennsylvania Cured Cancer Campaign going to Harrisburg Friday for the Pennsylvania kickoff of the Crusade for Cancer Control.

The "Cured Cancer Album" was presented to Mrs. Eisenhower by four-year-old Renee Flacco whose mother, Sidonie, was featured on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life" and is the California choice for the photo book. The Flacco family, formerly of Bucks County, Pa., is this year's American Cancer Society poster family.

Represents 5,000

In accepting the "Cured Cancer Album" Mrs. Eisenhower officially launched the society's 1960 educational and fund raising Crusade. The first lady is honorary national chairman of the crusade, a post she has held since 1953. The crusade is held each year in April to coincide with Cancer Control Month, proclaimed by President Eisenhower.

Mrs. Shears, in the album presented today, represents the 5,000 persons in Pennsylvania who have been cured of cancer. The cancer society estimates that 8,000 persons in this state will die of cancer this year and 2,500 of them will be "needless deaths" because their cancer was not detected in time.

Would Sell His Share Of WCBG

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Reese, Jr. has asked the Communications Commission for permission to sell his 80 per cent interest in Reese Broadcasting Corp., operating Chambersburg, Pa., radio station WCBG for $80,000.

Reese and his wife also propose to transfer certain real estate used in operation of the station for $5,000.

Under these transactions, operation of WCBG would pass to a four-man group, each holding a 25 per cent interest. Norman E. Messner, now WCBG general sales manager who holds a 20 per cent interest in the company, will become president of Reese Broadcasting. His associates will be Samuel Yousse, Akron, Pa., vice president; John H. Norris, York, Pa., secretary and Lester Greenawalt, York used car dealer, treasurer.

11 Awards Given To Cub Pack 107

Eleven awards were presented to members of Cub Pack 107, Annunciation Parish, McSherrytown, at a meeting in the school hall recently.

Cubmaster Michael Brady and assistant Cubmaster Francis Redding gave awards as follows: Gold arrows, Gerard Neiderer, Timothy Cashen, Jeffrey Klunk, Michael Marshall; Silver arrow, Wayne Topper; Denner stripes, James Keffer and David Harmon; Wolf badges, Gerard Lawrence and Gerard Neiderer; Bear badges, Michael Marshall and Stephen Redding.

Skits on the month's theme "Our Home State" were presented by Cubs of Dens Two, Four and Six. Dens One, Three and Five had table displays. Photographs and letters of congratulations on the 50th anniversary of Scouting were displayed by Pack 107 from President Eisenhower and Governor Lawrence. The governor's letter was accompanied by replicas of the state seal, flag and coat of arms and also pamphlets about Pennsylvania.

Members of Pack 128, East Berlin, were guests at the meeting.

CROWDS CHEER KHRUSHCHEV

By PRESTON GROVER

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—An enthusiastic crowd broke through police lines today and nearly overran Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Leaving the enclosed yard of a children's school he had visited, he mistook which car door to enter, and the crowd evidently thought he was coming over to get acquainted.

The wave of men and women stormed through the police line, shouting and waving red flags. Khrushchev was surrounded. The expression on the Premier's face indicated he did not find the experience completely agreeable. He stood in the crush until police rescued him and didn't try to shake a single hand.

A cordon of police on foot and with motorcycles quickly pushed in and formed around Khrushchev, then escorted him to his car.

Earlier in his tour of the French provinces Khrushchev showed signs that he thought he was seeing too much of French industry and not enough of the French people.

The name of Addis Ababa, capital of Ethiopia, means "new flower."

PRISON GUARD SLAIN

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—A guard was found slain and a prisoner was discovered missing at the Hillsboro County Jail today. Sheriff Thomas F. O'Brien identified the slain guard as George Gareau. He was found dead in a cell corridor with his skull bashed, the sheriff said.

The escaped prisoner, William F. Murphy, 19, of Manchester was awaiting trial on a charge of stealing an automobile.

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—Three Cubans who defected from the government of Prime Minister Fidel Castro have entered the United States here.

They are Capt. Jaime Varela Canosa, 35, former naval attaché in Mexico; and his two aides, Benjamin Granados Alvarez and Jose Antonio Darias Rodriguez, both 33. The men crossed the border Sunday. They gave no indication where they were heading.

PLANE CRASH FOLLOWS TRIO OF BOMBINGS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—Three bomb blasts in separate sections of Oklahoma City Saturday night were the grim prelude to an air disaster which took five lives Sunday.

There were no injuries in the blasts which damaged homes and autos owned by three production employees of the Oklahoma Publishing Co.

The explosions occurred within 90 minutes of each other. Officers called for demolition experts from Ft. Sill, Okla., to determine the nature of the explosions.

Crashed In Fog

A giant Army transport helicopter which carried the demolition experts here, crashed during a landing approach after the return to Ft. Sill. All five crewmen aboard were killed.

They were: C.W.O. Dewey L. Seigler, 32, Wallhalla, S.C., pilot; C.W.O. Carl V. Ayers, 32, Carrizo Springs, Tex., copilot; Sgt. Raymond D. Pestana, 32, Honolulu, Hawaii, crew chief; Sp.5.C. John C. Dollahite, Jr., Blanco, Tex., and Sp.4.C. Weldon D. Amason, 20, Pineland, Tex.

An Army spokesman said the twin-engine H37 helicopter apparently plunged nose first through a fog into the ground.

Homes Damaged

The demolition experts later returned to Ft. Sill by auto with samples of materials from the explosions here.

The blasts damaged the homes of Mrs. Walter Sherry, Jr., Bill Martin, and Alvin Winn. Autos owned by Sherry and Martin also were damaged.

Police said they were investigating the possibility of a connection between the blasts and two residential fires March 20.

The fires damaged a home owned by Marvin Hawkins, and another house formerly occupied by Dave Wilson.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The 12-year-old foster daughter of a Negro minister was wounded by a shotgun blast from a speeding car Sunday night as she and a group of friends chatted on the steps of his church.

Police immediately launched a massive manhunt. Police Commissioner Thomas Gibbons increased the special guards on duty in the South Philadelphia High School area for the opening of today's classes. A 17-year-old white boy was knifed to death by a group of Negro boys in the area last week.

The spire of Salisbury Cathedral (404 feet) is the highest structure in England.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Miss Irwin has disposed of her property on York street, next door to Judge Russell's, to Andrew Heintzelman Esq., for $1,000.

A bill has been passed by the Legislature and has been approved by the Governor, granting damages to Andrew Heintzelman and D. P. Mickley for the passage of the railroad through their farms. It has been a long time in adjustment, but it appears that justice has been done at last.

Railroad Accident: On Thursday morning last, by the breaking of a switch rail, on the Northern Central Railroad, near Cockeysville, the mail car and one passenger car were thrown off the track and rolled down an embankment about 20 feet high. Several persons were injured. Mr. David Warren, of this place, was slightly burned from the car taking fire from the stove. He was able however to return home the same day and is going about as usual.

Snow fell a foot deep in Rochester, New York, on Monday last and the wind blew a gale. We had a little share of the cold from there in the early part of last week.

Election: The town held its election on Friday last and we have now named new officers to serve us for the coming year. The Peoples Ticket candidates were everywhere victorious. The results were: Burgess, C. H. Buehler 208; H. L. Benner, 135; town council, A. Doerom, 203; D. Kendlehart, 199; N. Codori, 124; E. Menchy, 133; Justice, A. J. Cover, 337; W. N. Meals, 130.

School Directors: D. A. Buehler, 217; R. G. McCreary, 205; T. D. Carson, 206; S. Powers, 146; R. D. Armor, 147; J. Benner, 142; constable, J. Barrett, 212; J. Sheads, 192; J. L. Burns (Independent), 83; L. Burns, 78.

Pasturing On The Highway: The supreme court of this state has decided that in the highway the right of passage belongs to the public, but the title to the soil, stones, wood and grass continues to the owner of the land. A person has no more right to pasture his cattle on the highway than he has to pasture his cattle in the fields of farmers and is equally liable in an action for damages.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Littlestown Items: Prof. W. E. Krebs will commence the second session of his school on Tuesday after Easter, April 7th. Prof. D. Ruff, principal of the public schools of this place, will open a select school April 6th, Easter Monday. With these two schools, for the support of which there is, or ought to be, patronage enough, our town and community has superior school advantages. It is hoped the young people will have sufficient ambition to improve these high privileges.

We had the pleasure of a handshake with Dr. R. McSherry who was absent from home the last year.

Our neighbor, Mr. John Newman, mail carrier between this place and Westminster, lost his horse last Wednesday, valued at $150. A purse is being made up for Mr. N. as he is not able to suffer this loss without embarrassment in his business and the support of his family.

Mr. J. P. Randle's cigar shop was destroyed by fire this Monday morning at about 5 o'clock. The snow on Saturday night gave our streets quite a wintry appearance. For the past week the streets of our town and the public roads in this section presented an unusual appearance. In the center there was summer-like dust, and at many places snow and ice banks at either side. This last snow has given us mud in abundance.

Today's Talk

"TAKE ME ALONG"
How many times we have met an old friend and heard that one describe an interesting trip — all arranged — so promising that we exclaim: "Oh, take me along!"

All this reminds me of the time when Wendell Phillips, the American orator, met the poet Nora Perry on the streets of Boston and inquired: "Where are you going?" "To meet a friend," she replied. "Oh," said Phillips, "take me with you, I want to meet a friend!"

Meeting a friend is the dream of us all. Not to meet one, but to bring that one to join our others in a life-time companionship. Taken right out of the experience of childhood is this line, "Daddy, take me along." If more daddies had taken their kiddies with them so that the influence of the older ones could have worked through a more natural process, the present "teen-agers" would be less of a problem, and more of a joy with whom to work.

How many an ocean voyage has a "going away party," each friend saying: "Take me along." Many have taken us along in their hearts, and we them, in ours. We think of the absent ones, and of all that they have meant to us. Oh, yes! Take me along.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Only As You Believe"

Just Folks

THE OLD-MAID AUNT
The old-maid aunt! How good she was,
How tender in her way;
Upon her knee a boy like me
Could sit the liveliest day.
She seemed so different every way
From other aunts I've known;
I guess it was because she had
No children of her own.

No fault of mine was wholly bad,
She always took my part.
The times my father scolded me
She hugged me to her heart.
And every time she came to call
Some little gift she brought
To show a certain little boy
How much of him she thought.

I didn't understand her then,
The way I do today;
I only knew I missed her much
When she was called away.
It's too late now, She cannot read
Or hear this simple chant,
But, oh, I'm sorry for the boy
Who has no old-maid aunt.

Hope Accord Near In Guild Strike

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Negotiators for the Screen Actors Guild and the Assn. of Motion Picture Producers today launch what they hope will be the last week of contract talks in the strike of 16,000 actors.

The actors and producers agreed that progress was made Saturday and both sides are now considering proposals offered then.

The strike started March 6. The main issue is whether actors should be paid a share of the studios' proceeds from sales of recent films to television.

TEN CARDINALS ARE CREATED IN ROME TODAY

By FRANK BRUTTO
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII today created 10 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church, including three whose names will remain secret until some future date.

The new cardinals previously named for elevation included the first Negro, the first Japanese and the first Filipino prince of the church. One Italian newspaper called it the "rainbow consistory."

"Quod vobis videtur, (What do you think of it?) the pontiff asked at the end of his Latin allocution naming the new cardinals. Thirty-seven previous cardinals, meeting with the Pope behind the massive closed doors of the Vatican's Consistorial Hall, silently removed their skullcaps in assent.

Deliver Notices
Two papal emissaries at once began a round of calls to deliver the official notification, or biglietto, to the seven new cardinals waiting at various church centers in the Vatican or in Rome.

The secret consistory today was the first in a series of ceremonies. The climax will come Thursday in the colorful public consistory in St. Peter's Basilica at which the new cardinals receive their traditional red hats, the broad-brimmed, low-crowned galeros.

The seven new princes of the church who had been designated by Pope John on March 3 are Bishop Laurian Rugambwa, 47, of Rutaba, Tanganyika, the college's first Negro member; Archbishop Peter Tatusio Dio, 67, of Tokyo; Archbishop Rufino J. Santos, 51, of Manila; Archbishop Bernard Jan Alfrink, 59, of Utrecht, Netherlands; Archbishop Joseph Lefebvre, 67, of Bourges, France; and the Most Rev. Luigi Traglia, 64, and the Most Rev. Antonio Bacci, 64, both Italian members of the Vatican Curia.

SPRINGFIELD OPENS CALDER CUP PLAYOFF

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American Hockey League champion Springfield Indians will open their best-of-seven Calder Cup semifinal series Wednesday against third-place Providence and second-place Rochester faces fourth place Cleveland the same night.

Springfield, which long ago had clinched first place in the AHL, wound up its regular season play with an 8-4 victory over the Buffalo Bisons Saturday night.

But Providence didn't find out it had third place clinched until Hershey beat Cleveland 6-4 Sunday afternoon. The Reds then went out and edged Buffalo 5-4 in overtime.

Rochester Ends Season
Rochester wound up its season with an 11-2 victory over last-place Quebec—the most goals the Amerks have ever scored. In other Saturday action, Cleveland beat Quebec 10-2 and Hershey won over Providence 6-4.

Stan Smrke, who scored one goal for Rochester, was the league's best goal-getter with 40.

Springfield and Providence plays two games at Springfield, move to Providence for two more on April 3 and 6, and alternate between cities until the series is decided.

Rochester plays its first two at home, then moves to Cleveland for a pair, April 2 and 3 and then the two will alternate if necessary.

Boy Killed By Train On Bridge

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Two 12-year-old boys went walking on a narrow railroad bridge Saturday. A train approached. They ran for their lives. One made it. The other was killed.

The victim was Nathan Dunstan of Erie, caught under the wheels of a 54-car Nickel Plate freight. Herbert Evans barely leaped to safety from the end of the 200-foot long bridge.

The victim was Nathan Dunstan of Erie, caught under the wheels of a 54-car Nickel Plate freight. Herbert Evans barely leaped to safety from the end of the 200-foot long bridge.

Brakeman Mark M. King of Conneaut, Ohio, said the crew of the train, traveling about 15 miles an hour, saw the boys and desperately tried to halt. King said: "It's a terrible thing to see a kid trying to dance out of the way and go down between the cars."

LEADERS SAY ELECTION LAW NEEDS CHANGE

(Editors: The following story was written by Len Unger, chief of the AP's Harrisburg Bureau, less than 24 hours before his sudden death Saturday).

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—What happens when you run for delegate to the national convention on a pledge to support the voters' choice for president when there is no presidential candidate listed on the ballot?

The enigma presented itself in Pennsylvania today in a situation described as unprecedented in state history.

Sixty-six candidates for 120 district delegate seats to the Democratic national convention signed a solemn promise to support the presidential candidate who receives the highest number of votes in their respective districts.

No Democratic Candidates
But the pledges, filed before Feb. 23, didn't envision a decision by presidential aspirants not to enter Pennsylvania's preferential primary April 26. It's the first time since 1928 a Democratic presidential candidate won't be listed on the state ballot.

The pledges are meaningless," said John S. Rice, secretary of the Commonwealth and Democratic state chairman.

"Why you could conceivably, as some sort of a joke by some wagish voters, wind up with Khrushchev or Mickey Mouse with a few votes written in for president. If there were no votes for an authentic candidate for president, where would you be?"

Agrees With Rice
In a separate interview George I. Bloom Republican state chairman sided with Rice even though the GOP doesn't have the problem. Although 35 GOP candidates have signed pledges, Vice President Richard M. Nixon's name will be the only one on the ballot.

"I don't think they (the Democrats) should consider those pledges as binding," Bloom said. "A write-in vote, such as under the circumstances in the coming primary election, doesn't mean anything."

The pledge itself is simple. In

SAYS KILLING OF YOUTH, 17, PREVENTABLE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A former judge charged that the street killing of a white youth might have been prevented if other incidents involving Negro and white boys had been reported.

Nochem S. Winnett, a former judge of Municipal Court and now chairman of the board of the Crime Prevention Assn., made this statement Friday as funeral services were held for John A. Campiglia Jr., 17.

He cited an association report which listed these incidents in South Philadelphia in the week preceding Campiglia's slaying:

Tells Of Violence
A Negro boy seized by 12 white youths, burned with a lighted cigarette and beaten unconscious with a fire hydrant chain and iron cap.

Another Negro boy beaten by the same group.

Six white boys beaten by two Negro boys.

A Negro boy shot at from a moving automobile carrying four or five white boys.

Campiglia, an honor student, was set upon and stabbed with a dagger last Monday as he neared his home on his way from South Philadelphia High School. Twelve Negro boys have admitted the crime. Eleven of them have been charged with homicide.

Unfamiliar With Assaults
Police said Campiglia didn't know his attackers, although many of them attended South Philadelphia High.

"That unfortunate tragedy," said Winnett, "might have been averted if the teachers and police had reported these incidents to their superiors, who might have taken steps to prevent any outbreaks."

Meanwhile, extra police details continued to saturate South Philadelphia, a section where people of many nationalities and races live.

As many as 800 parents came to one school in the section to escort their children home Friday.

It, the delegate promises "with all fidelity" to support the presidential candidate who receives the highest number of votes in the district.

Not Following Pledge
Several Democratic delegate candidates were asked if they had planned to follow through on the pledge. All said no.

"I certainly wouldn't want to be bound by that now," said William W. Litke, a State College, Pa., attorney, in a typical response.

Lester B. Fiester, a Lancaster, Pa., insurance broker, said he would follow through on the pledge only if a presidential candidate received an overwhelming number of write-in votes.

Pennsylvania's 81-vote Democratic delegation to the Los Angeles convention in July is mostly uncommitted principally because the chairman, Gov. David L. Lawrence, has asked that it be so.

Dayton University has been runnerup in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament five times in the last nine years.

Honor Taneytown Drivers For Safety

Five drivers of the Cambridge Rubber Co., Taneytown, were honored Thursday at the plant safety committee meeting for driving a combined total of 43 accident-free years. Safe driver pins and certificates, awarded by the Hartford Insurance Accident and Indemnity Co., were presented by George Smith, Cambridge Rubber Co.

Drivers receiving the awards and their safe driving records are: John Eckard, 16 years; Guy Long, 13 years; Glenn Reaver, seven years; John Eichelberger, six years; and Harry Clabaugh, one year. Smith tendered congratulations on behalf of the company for the records of these drivers.

Awards under the safe driver plan of the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Co. represented locally by the J. Edward Cochran and Co., Inc. Agency, are open to any employee of a company insured by Hartford who operates his commercial vehicle for 12 consecutive months without a chargeable accident. Only those drivers who meet rigid standards of accident and driving control are eligible for participation in the program. This marks the second year these awards have been made.

4 CHILDREN DIE IN FIRE ON SATURDAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Four small children have been burned to death in a fire in nearby Rankin.

The quick-spreading blaze destroyed two houses and damaged three others Saturday afternoon. All were slated to be torn down for a redevelopment project.

The victims were John White, 3; his brothers, Kenneth, 2, and Dennis, 10 months, children of Mr. and Mrs. John White, and David Hawes, 3, son of Mrs. Lulu Hawes, who is Mrs. White's mother. The dead were Negroes.

All were trapped in the White home where the fire started. Edward White, 10, and two other Hawes children fled to safety. Mrs. White was visiting at the nearby home of her mother.

Police Chief Frank Gaskill of Rankin said the fire started when Edward White tried to light a kerosene heater he found on a hillside.

Rankin Fire Chief Peter Mehale estimated damage at $25,000.

MIDWEST IS UNCOMMITTED ON DEMOCRATS

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
DETROIT (AP)—Midwestern Democratic leaders with battle banners flying scattered today from a weekend conference that left the nation's heartland wide open territory in the tussle for the party presidential nomination.

They were ready to take on Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the upcoming campaign against the GOP and their own Southern colleagues on the blazing civil rights issue. But for the most part they were unwilling as yet to commit themselves on a Democratic presidential candidate.

Sens. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts came to the 14-state conference courtng support for the nomination. All are top-flight contenders, all got negative results and all went away with no important gains—or losses.

But the three-day rally did touch off sparks that could ignite another one of those roaring North-South feuds at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles next July.

There were friendly words for Southern Democrats and disavowals of any intent to drive them into bolting the party. Still, the conference launched without a dissenting voice a drive for a platform plank on civil rights that convention delegates from Dixie couldn't possibly accept.

The Midwestern leaders approved and recommended to the convention a pledge to throw the full power of the White House and Congress behind guarantees to all Americans of equality in voting, schooling, housing and eating at lunch counters.

National Democratic Chairman Paul M. Butler, who often rubs Southerners—and others—the wrong way, gave the whole performance unstinting support. Butler also informally invited loyal Southern Democrats to pick their own delegates to the Los Angeles convention to challenge any rebels who refuse to back the party nominees.

The trio of presidential aspirants had no part in putting across a civil rights proposal packed with political TNT. They had only oratorical roles at the conference, and again at a rally sponsored by the United Auto Workers Union.

Yanks With More Power Are Pinning Hopes On Veterans

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Perhaps the New York Yankee empire has crumbled. Perhaps Casey Stengel has had it. Perhaps—but don't bet on it.

New blood has been injected by Roger Maris. Old familiar faces like Hank Bauer, Don Larsen and Norm Siebern have departed. If there was complacency a year ago, it vanished in the wake of a third-place finish.

Although the Yanks praised Chicago for its pennant victory last year, many of them blame themselves for losing it. They are working hard this spring to get back on the gravy train.

Have More Power
"Can this club do any good?"

Manager Casey Stengel asked himself. "That is a good question. Now I know Bill Skowron and Elston Howard are pretty good hitters. My pitching, I'll have to find out I think we'll hit better. The runs have to come in pretty soon or we'll have to make some changes. Our team is going to have to make it with men who have played in the big league."

"We got Maris who drove in 75 runs actually it was 72 for Kansas City and we've got Hector Lopez who drove in 93. Now (Mickey) Mantle knocked in a few runs (75) and he can drive in more."

Skowron Is Important
Bill Skowron (298) is a most important man. The big first baseman missed a good share of last season because of a back injury and a broken wrist. Bobby Richardson (301) has taken charge at second. Shortstop probably will belong to Tony Kubek (279) with Gil McDougald (251) or Andy Carey (257) on third.

Maris (273 at Kansas City) seems to be making the switch to left field without too much trouble although he still must prove he can do it at Yankee Stadium. Mantle (285) was slowed down by a holdout and a sore knee in his hopes for a fast start to erase memories of 1959. Lopez (283) will be in right.

Yogi Berra (284), after a few games at third, is ready to return to catching with help from Elston Howard (273). Stengel would like to have both in the lineup at the same time and may juggle to do it.

Whitey Ford (16-10) has been hot in the spring games. Bob Turley (8-11), experimenting with a new delivery with men on base, has been so-so. Art Ditmar (13-9). Jim Coates (6-1) and probably rookie Bill Short (17-6 at Richmond) will be the other starters. Short and Ralph Terry (5-11) were late joining the club because of Army service. Terry too, could start. Ryne Duren (3-6) appears to have bullpen heat in rookie Johnny James (9-6 at Richmond), the best looking young pitcher in camp.

SNEAD SNARES NEW CAR, CASH

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Sammy Snead has another tomato can crammed with folding money to bury in his backyard.

The hillbilly from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., who jests about his cached wealth, carried home $5,500 in a new car which also went with his victory in the $40,000 DeSoto Lakes Open Golf Tournament Sunday. First prize was $5,300, and Slamming Sammy got another $200 for playing in the 72-hole event.

In winning the 104th tournament of his long career Snead put together rounds of 69-72-67-68 for a 276 total over the 6,902-yard, par 35-36 — 71 rolling DeSoto Lakes course. He won by a stroke over little Jerry Barber of Los Angeles.

Barber held a two-stroke lead at the end of the second and third rounds, and still clung to that margin after nine holes of the final round. Then, while Barber was coming in par figures, Slamming Sammy collected three birdies and six pars to come home in front by a stroke.

Barber earned $3,400. Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who finished third at 278, collected $2,200.

BUG ROOKIE IMPRESSIVE AGAIN SUNDAY

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
A minor baseball miracle is taking place at Fort Myers, Fla., where Diomedes Olivo, a 40-year-old rookie pitcher, is trying to earn a berth with Pittsburgh's Pesky Pirates.

Picked up from Poza Rica of the Mexican League, Olivo impressed again Sunday by pitching one-hit ball for two innings in his exhibition debut as Pittsburgh blanked Washington 4-0 for its 11th consecutive victory.

Olivo compiled a 21-8 record in the double A Mexican circuit last season. He appeared in 35 games, completed 23 of 30 starts, worked 247 innings, struck out 233, walked only 61 and turned in a 3.02 earned run average.

Despite Olivo's age, Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh decided to take a look at the 6-foot-1, 195-pound native of the Dominican Republic. He may be just the man to spell relief specialist Roy Face.

Olivo's pitched creditably in most of his intrasquad workouts and showed a hopping fast ball in his first official outing for the Pirates, who haven't lost since dropping their first three games.

Other fine pitching performances were turned in Sunday by St. Louis' Vinegar Bend Mizell, who went nine innings and beat Detroit 3-1 on a five-hitter, and Cincinnati's Jim Brosan, a 4-3 victor over Milwaukee with a six-hit, nine-inning job.

In other games, Chicago's White Sox edged Philadelphia 7-6. Baltimore defeated New York 3-1. San Francisco beat Boston 6-3. Kansas City nipped Los Angeles 3-2 and Chicago's Cubs whipped Cleveland 3-2.

DALLAS LONG SETS RECORD WITH SHOT-PUT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A metal ball goes on the scales today to determine whether young giant Dallas Long is the first shot putter officially to break 64 feet.

The 260-pound University of Southern California sophomore got off a toss of 64 feet, 6 1/2 inches in a dual meet Saturday with the Los Angeles Striders.

Right behind Long with a heave of 63-10 1/2 was Dave Davis, a 260-pound ex-Trojan who was competing for the Striders.

Within a few minutes of each other, both men had shattered Parry O'Brien's recognized world record of 63-2.

Shot Out Previously
Officials said they saw no reason why the toss of 19-year-old Long will not be accepted. The shot was the same one which weighed one ounce more than the required 16 pounds when Long threw it 63-7 two weeks ago. The weighing today was to be done by the city Department of Weights and Measures.

When Davis saw officials measure out his mighty heave, he leaped for joy and shouted: "It's a new world record—but I can do better."

But Long by contrast left the ring immediately after his throw a few moments later and sat on the grass, head down, hands over his face, concentrating on his next toss.

Long showed no emotion when the distance was announced, but he finally stood up, grinning, to accept congratulations.

SAYS BIG "O" LIKELY WILL JOIN ROYALS

NEW YORK (AP)—Oscar Robertson, the Big O of college basketball, will do his pro playing for a National Basketball Assn. club, undoubtedly Cincinnati, rather than the Harlem Globetrotters.

That was the word today from George Smith, coach of the three-time All-America who graduated from the University of Cincinnati this spring with a degree in business administration.

Oscar was not in a talkative mood regarding his future basketball plans after starring in a losing cause in the East's 67-66 victory over the West in the New York Herald Tribune's Fresh Air Fund All-Star Game Saturday.

Royals Are First
But Smith, who coached the Western team, said: "I think I know Oscar. He is not concerned with a fantastic salary as the Globetrotters figure to offer him. He wants a home, security and a chance to build a future. As you know he is getting married in June."

"He figures the Globetrotters wouldn't offer him all that since the team is constantly on the go. With the NBA he'll be able to set up a home and possibly go into the business of selling real estate and insurance in the off season."

The Cincinnati Royals have first call on Robertson in the NBA as a territorial selection.

OKLAHOMA IS NCAA CHAMP IN WRESTLING

BALTIMORE (AP)—Oklahoma is tops in college wrestling today with the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. team title and three individual championships.

The Sooners scored 59 points to best 80 other schools in the three-day competition which ended Saturday night at the University of Maryland.

Iowa State was runnerup with 40, its third straight year in the No. 2 spot.

Wyoming was third with 3, University of Iowa fourth with 32 and defending champion Oklahoma State fifth with 29.

2 Pa. Men In Finals
Leading the sooners to the national crown were 130-pound Stan Abel, 191-pound George Goodner and heavyweight Dale Lewis.

Cornell's Dave Auble, two-time winner of the 123-pound title, was voted the tourney's outstanding wrestler.

Pennsylvania team scores were Lock Haven, Pa. 25, Penn State 23; Pitt 21, Lehigh 16, Wayneburg 8, and West Chester 5.

There were only two Pennsylvania wrestlers in the championship finals. They were:

Elliot Simons, Lock Haven, won judges decision over Dick Wilson, Toledo (overtime 2-2 and 3-3) in the 115-pound class.

Larry Lauchie, Pitt, was decided by Stan Abel, Oklahoma, 5-2 in the 130-pound class.

DOUG JONES AND VON CLAY MEET TONIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Doug Jones, an unbeaten, New York light heavyweight, and one-beaten Von Clay, fifth ranking contender from Philadelphia, meet tonight in a ten-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

At stake is a lucrative television slot against Willie Pastrano in Miami Beach, April 22.

This is Jones' first venture against a ranking 175-pounder although he holds a victory over the only lighter to beat Clay Jones, 23, whipped Clarence (Tiger) Floyd last Jan. 10. Then on March 25, Floyd outpointed the 21-year-old Clay in Philadelphia.

Jones' record is 12-0, including 7 knockouts. Clay's record is 11-1-2 including 8 kayos.

Other Battles
Carlos Hernandez, who broke Davey Moore's jaw and stopped the world featherweight champion recently, fights another American in Caracas tonight. The unbeaten Venezuelan faces veteran Californian Gil Cadillac in a ten-rounder.

A pair of young lightweights, Eddie Perkins of Chicago, and Chico Rollins of New York, are featured in the Wednesday night television—ABC 10 p.m., EST—ten-rounder at the Chicago Stadium.

YOUTH, 16, KILLED
MARTINSBURG, W. Va. (AP)—Roger Lee Stocklager, 16, of Fayetteville, Pa., was killed Saturday night when the car in which he was riding ran off U. S. 11 about 4 1/2 miles north of here. Four other teen-agers were injured.

COLUMBIA TEAM LEADS IN TENPINS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—John Elchorn's of Columbia, Lancaster County, leads all teams in the Class A division of the 21st annual Pennsylvania State Tenpin Bowling Championships.

The Elchorn team took over first place Sunday with games of 850, 921, and 857 and a 288 handicap for 2,916.

Chester's Bar of Philadelphia is in second place with 2,902 pins, followed by Heald's Tavern of Meadville with 2,873.

Other Leaders
W. DeWitt of Titusville heads the Class A Singles division with 689 pins. H. Inman of Union City is second with a 626. In third place is F. Rich of Ridgway with a 624.

In the Class A doubles division, E. Mock and J. Over of Martinsburg are in first place with 1,240 pins.

R. Paine and J. Wickenheiser of Manheim, Lancaster County, hold second place with a 1,215 total. Philadelphia's W. Smith and A. Snyder are next with 1,214 pins.

The tourney is slated to run every weekend through June 12 at Brannan's Bowl in suburban McKees Rocks. Some 6,000 bowlers and 1,066 teams are competing for $73,000 in prizes.

MIKE JOHNSON IS 3-TIME HS MAT WINNER

Art Miller, 133, Biglerville High's ace wrestler, was eliminated in the semifinals of the tournament when he lost a 6-2 decision to Doug Koch, Bethlehem. Koch went on to the class title by defeating Tom Bailey, Waynesburg, in the championship event.

Miller's loss was his first of the season. He had won 18 straight, winning the District 3 and Southeastern Regional titles to qualify for the state meet.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—Mike Johnson, a muscular little Lock Haven High School junior who makes winning a routine, is the talk of Pennsylvania's school-boy wrestlers.

For the third year in a row, the 16-year-old lad was victorious in the PIAA state wrestling tournament Saturday night at Pennsylvania State University. He won the 112-pound title.

Back home today, Johnson said in an interview he wants to go to college after he graduates in 1961. And the first thing he'll do, he said, is try out for wrestling.

Credit To Coach
"I feel real good," he replied when asked about becoming a three-time state title winner. Last year, he won the 103-pound championship and the year before the 95-pound title.

Mike gave most of the credit for his winning to his coach, John Steman.

Young Johnson said wrestling is gaining more popularity among high schoolers in Pennsylvania every year.

Johnson's 5-1 decision over Upper Darby's Dick Hamilton highlighted the tournament. Most of the other defending champions found it rough going this year.

Other Repeater
The only other one to repeat as a titlist was Frank Eisenhower of Bald Eagle-Nittany. He won in the 154-pound class, defeating Floyd Marshall of Burgetstown, 5-0. Last year, Eisenhower won the 145-pound title.

State College's Dick Tressler, victor at 120 pounds in 1958 and at 127 in 1959, was beaten at the latter weight by Carl Fraley of Hughesville 2-0 in a semifinal that went into overtime. It was Tressler's first defeat in 68 matches.

Fraley went on to win the 127-pound title with a 4-3 decision over Bob Haney of Canon-McMillan.

Ex-champ Loses
Another defending champion, Floyd Welker of Shamokin, lost his 120-pound crown to Jerry Twoey of Phillipsburg-Osceola. Twoey pinned him in 3:20.

Johnson, Twoey, Eisenhower and Jim Nance of Indiana, who won in the unlimited class, all hail from District Six.

Other victors were Bob Bell, Columbia, 95-pound; Terry Haise, Erie Strong Vincent, 103; Doug Koch, Bethlehem, 133; John Carr, Hanover Twp., 145; Lee Hall, Hughesville, 165; Marshall Dauber, Selinsgrove, 180.

Phillies' Pitcher Fails To Impress

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—What's happened to pitcher Don Cardwell, who was slated to be a starter for the Philadelphia Phillies this year?

The Chicago White Sox tagged Cardwell for three runs in the first inning and another in the third and went on to defeat Philadelphia 7-6, Sunday in an exhibition game.

Cardwell now has given up 12 runs in his last 12 innings on the mound. For the Phillies it was their ninth loss in 13 exhibitions, their eighth in their last nine games and their fifth by one run.

MAC NORTHERN CAGE CHOICES

Moravian's record-setting Ducky Potter was the overwhelming choice of Middle Atlantic Conference college basketball coaches for the title of outstanding player of the division.

Potter, considered one of the top court performers in Moravian's history, contributed 373 points in 15 MAC games this season to lead the division with an average of 24.9 points a game. Potter connected on 46.1 per cent of his shots from the floor.

The Allentown, Pa., native broke the Moravian single-game scoring record this season when he poured in 43 points in a winning effort against Scranton.

Potter was selected on the MAC-All Northern College Division Team, along with forwards Ted Jackson and Brant Alyea, both of Hofstra; Center Ken Van Dine of Albright; and Guard Tom Pearsall of Albright.

Elected to berths on the all-division second team were Forward Bernard Radecki of Wilkes; Forward Robert Geiger of Elizabethtown; Center Hank Van de Water of Lebanon Valley; Guard Richie Schwartz of Toftstra; and Guard Don Burnich of Juniata.

WIFFI SMITH WINS TOURNEY

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Winsome Wiffi Smith, who drives with a brassie and chips with almost anything, staged a final round rally to win the 2nd Columbus Women's Open Golf tournament.

The freckle-faced Miss Smith launched her stretch drive with an eagle-three on the first hole and sailed in with a 4-under-par 68 Sunday.

Her 298 total nipped Louise Suggs of Atlanta, the third round leader, and Fay Crocker of Montevideo, Uruguay, by one stroke. Miss Suggs finished with a 76 and Miss Crocker made up ground with a 72.

The Columbus Country Club Course's par of 36-36 — 72 is stretched over 6,557 rolling, testing yards. But was no match for the precision play of the 24-year-old Miss Smith, who plays out of St. Clair, Mich.

After shipping in with a 10-iron from 30 yards out for her eagle, Wiffi stroked in birdie puts of 15, 9 and 20 feet and made the turn in 32, a course record for women.

For the Phillies it was their ninth loss in 13 exhibitions, their eighth in their last nine games and their fifth by one run.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

INDIAN CAPTIVES RETURNED

The account of the Rev. Harry Muhlenberg, pioneer Lutheran minister on the Pennsylvania frontier, pertaining to the Leininger family and their capture by the Indians in 1755, is continued at this time. He (the Rev. Muhlenberg) is writing to the church fathers in Europe about an incident that was even on that day somewhat unusual.

"When they (the Indians and their captives) had now proceeded about four hundred English miles the younger, the ten-year-old Regina Leininger, was separated from her sister, Barbara. She was handed over (to her Indian family) and compelled to go more than one hundred miles further with a two-year-old child, which she was compelled to carry, strapped to her back. Finally Regina also reached the end of her journey and, together with the child which she was carrying, was given over to an ill-tempered squaw, who had but one son as her support, to be her (the squaw's) slave for life. But he (the son) oft times did not return home for a week or an even longer period, and so neglected (to provide for) his mother. In consequence of this the old woman demanded that Regina should provide sustenance, or be put to death. The little helpless infant also clung to Regina and looked to her for comfort.

Destitute Of Clothing

"They were entirely destitute of clothing, and the supply of provisions was very scant. When the worthless son was not at home Regina was expected to see to everything if she did not wish to be scolded and beaten by the old hag (Woeifin). It was therefore necessary for her to drag together the wood by which they were warmed. When the ground was open she looked for and dug up all manner of wild roots, artichokes, garlic, etc., and gathered the tender bark of trees and vegetables to preserve the family alive. When there was frost on the ground she hunted all kinds of living creatures, such as wild rats, field mice, and other animals which she was able to capture, to satisfy the cravings of hunger.

"For more than nine years, she (Regina), together with the other little girl, was compelled to continue this mode of life, not knowing whether she should ever again return to live among her own people.

"Through the first terrible calamity, when she (Regina) was deprived of her father, mother, brothers, and sister, she was naturally benumbed. In the long journey, with its attendant cruelties, and deprivation of all the necessities and comfort at the hands of the savages—in continued fears and the very shadow of death, there was no time for reflection, and she could not do more than preserve an animal existence."

Miserable Existence

When, however, this miserable mode of existence had become second nature, and the powers of the soul were again brought into activity, the prayers, the passages of scripture and the sacred hymns which she (Regina) had learned from her parents became her chief delight. These divine truths were developed in her soul as a seed which begins to grow, sending its roots downward and the shoots upward, when the genial warmth of the sun causes the earth to produce life. Thus the word of God, learned by her, gradually expanded into life, and in her tribulation brought peace, rest and comfort to her heart.

"The miserable mode of living was a good assistant and means of restraint to curb the sinful flesh and its growing desires and the Word of God implanted in her tender youth could so much the more readily promote the growth of the inner life. . . .

"When finally, during the year (1764) just passed, the fierce savages were put to flight, and their homes attacked, especially by the prudent and brave Colonel Bouquet and his victorious army, and were compelled to sue for peace, and to deliver their Christian captives. Regina and her foster child were delivered with the others.

"This was a remarkable event, viz., as a large number of captives were brought to Colonel Bouquet in the midst of the trackless wilderness, the larger part being without any clothing, a beneficent charity was manifested, not only by the colonel himself, but also by his people, in that they cut off the flaps of their coats and waistcoats, and cut up their blankets and so on to cover the absolute nakedness of the poor creatures, it being in the mid- of winter. Then the kind-hearted Colonel Bouquet first brought the larger party of former captives from the country of the savages to the English fort on the Ohio River, known as Fort Pitt. There the same spirit of sympathy and humanity was manifested by the (soldiers of) the garrison. Whatever each one could spare of his scanty supply of food and clothing was bestowed upon these fellow creatures. . . .

"From Fort Pitt the crowd (army) of those rescued was finally brought into the Province of Pennsylvania to a village named Carlisle. Notice was given in all the newspapers that whoever had lost friends, relatives, husband, wife or children should be on hand and claim their own (by proper signs). Accordingly the above mentioned poor widow with her only yet remaining son journeyed thither.

Asked For Daughter

"She asked the commissioners for her little daughter, Regina, describing her as she was when between nine and ten years of age. But she could find no one resembling her among the crowd. For Regina now was more than 18 years of age, fully grown to womanhood, stout, with the bearing of an Indian, and speaking the language of the savages. The commissioners asked the mother whether she could not designate some characteristic by which her daughter might be known. The mother replied in German: That her daughter frequently sang the hymns 'Jesus I Love Evermore' and 'Alone, And Yet Not Alone Am I in My Dread Solitude.'

"Hardly had the widow said this when Regina sprang from among the others and repeated the hymns named. Thus were the mother and her long lost daughter reunited and hastened to return home. The little girl for whom Regina had cared kept looking on and repeated the things which Regina had repeated. But no one could be found who recognized her as their own child. Hence it was thought that probably her parents had been murdered. But she was not willing to leave her foster mother and clung affectionately to Regina so that she could not be left behind but went to live with Regina and her mother.

"This happened at Carlisle, December 31, 1764. In February, 1765, the Widow Leininger with her daughter came to see me for the purpose of obtaining a Bible, which I cheerfully gave them."

There is a tradition to the effect that after their reunion Regina Leininger and her mother went to live within the bounds of the Rev. Kurtz's congregation, now Christ Church, Stoucksburg, Pa. Almost all the accounts agree that Regina and her mother remained in that locality and are buried there. It is an accepted tradition that neither mother nor daughter lived long after their reunion at Carlisle. They were buried in the same grave, or at least very close together, closer than the usual custom, along the eastern wall of the old burial ground at Christ Church. The graves were long marked by a cedar or similar evergreen which was planted between them. Today the visitor to the old cemetery can still see the outlines of the two graves, closer than any others, along the east wall, marked only by field stones and the remains of the stump of the evergreen.

This concludes the notes on the Penn's Creek massacre. Next week the historical and genealogical study of the "Low Dutch" colony and burial grounds, in this county, will begin in this column.

SEE HOPES FOR DISARMAMENT ACCORD SOON

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — Western officials said Saturday they believed the Soviet Union may soon give up its stonewall tactics and get down to real negotiations at the 10-nation disarmament conference. By the end of its second week, the conference has produced little more than preliminary skirmishing. But the Western delegates are encouraged by the relaxed atmosphere. There was a general feeling that the Soviets may adopt a more elastic approach, particularly as the East-West summit meeting now only seven weeks away, comes closer. The United States, Britain, France, Italy and Canada have submitted a three-stage disarmament plan, with control provisions and setting no time limit.

Tell Plan Details

The Soviet plan, first outlined by Premier Nikita Khrushchev last year, calls for general and complete disarmament within four years, under control provisions described by Western delegates as so vague they are meaningless. Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin has refused to be drawn out on how the controls would operate. There can be no discussion of controls until the conference has agreed on what should be controlled, he said Friday.

The Western delegations are unwilling to agree to specific disarmament measures without knowing how these would be verified. Going ahead they fear would expose them to public opinion pressure to carry out arms cuts that the Soviet bloc may subsequently refuse to put under adequate inspection.

Eaton Conducts Tests

U.S. Ambassador Frederick M. Eaton sprang a surprise by testing Zorin's reaction to a specific disarmament proposal.

Suppose, said Eaton, we agree to cut the level of American and Soviet armed forces to 2,100,000 men each, how would such a cut be verified? How many inspectors would be required, how would they operate and what would be done with the surplus arms?

American officials said Zorin's refusal to be drawn into the discussion appeared mainly a device to leave him room for maneuvering when the conference resumes Monday.

Zorin insisted the Soviet Union will not discuss controls without disarmament.

Zorin's reply pointedly ignored the whole crux of Eaton's question—a force reduction to 2,100,000 men.

ARREST FIVE WITH BAYONET

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Five

Chester men were arrested in South Philadelphia Saturday after police stopped their car and found a bayonet on the front seat.

Police said there were two iron tires under a pillow on the floor of the back seat. They said three men in the back seat carried walking sticks.

Two of the men were held on charges of resisting arrest, assault under a pillow on the floor of the back seat, carrying concealed deadly weapons and breach of peace. They are Ernest Garrett, 21 (9th St.), the driver; and Carey Burns, 20 (Minor St.).

The other three, Timothy Nicholson, 23 (Potter St.), Reginald Breakley, 23 (Warner St.), and Eugene Walker, 22 (9th St.), were charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons and breach of peace. All five denied knowing the bayonet was in the car.

Elderly Couple Dies Very Suddenly

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Henry Bach, 75, rushed over to a neighbor Sunday and said, "my wife is very ill."

Four persons hurried to the Bach home and found Bessie Bach, 70, gasping for breath. As they tried to help her, Bach dropped dead behind them.

When they turned back to Mrs. Bach, she was dead, too. Both deaths were attributed to heart attacks.

Reds Peeved At Comic Art; Stop U.S. Train In Germany

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet forces in East Germany blocked an American Army train early Saturday because of a drawing—the Russians called it a swastika—in the dust on one of the cars, U. S. authorities reported. The train was headed across East Germany for West Berlin.

According to a U. S. spokesman, the Soviets alleged that a swastika had been drawn on one of the cars. The Americans saw no swastika, they said, until the train had been in Soviet custody for nearly three hours.

The train was sent back to Helmstedt, in West Germany, from the Soviet check point at Marienborn.

A later train was passed through by the Soviet officials without incident. It arrived in West Berlin about an hour late. An informed source in Frankfurt said that "maybe kids" were drawing the swastikas.

The train was one which U. S. Army sends daily from Bremerhaven, on the North Sea. It had just entered the 110-mile stretch of Communist territory that separates West Germany from West Berlin.

According to the U. S. version of the story, as told by a spokesman in West Berlin, the dust on one refrigerator car had markings on it. They looked to the Americans like a child's funny-face drawing—a square head with a long nose. Soviet troops said it was a swastika and shoved the train on a siding, under Soviet guard.

Ike's Brother III; Postpones Trip

BALTIMORE (AP)—Illness has forced Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, President Eisenhower's youngest brother, to postpone a trip to Italy.

The 60-year-old president of

The Story Behind The Book

TRUSTEE FROM THE TOOLROOM
Nevil Shute

All his adult life the late Nevil Shute managed the difficult feat of riding two horses simultaneously. There was Nevil Shute the designer and dirigible construction engineer, pilot and aircraft manufacturer, World War II research scientist and inventor. At the same time there was Nevil Shute the novelist, whose many best-sellers include the controversial "On the Beach," which foretells the grim aftermath of a global conflict in which all but a handful of people have been killed and, by contrast, a book as delightful as "Pied Piper," the story of a misanthrope who finds that when forced to assume responsibility for children he comes to love them.

But never did Nevil Shute combine his talents more effectively than in his last book, "Trustee from the Toolroom," to be distributed this month by the Book-of-the-Month Club as part of a double selection with Laurie Lee's autobiography "The Edge of Day."

The "trustee" of the title of Shute's novel is Keith Stewart, a mild, unassuming but brilliant English engineer who finds it necessary to embark upon a mission of high adventure to rescue the inheritance of an orphaned niece. Much to his astonishment, Keith discovers this involves traveling halfway around the world, including a journey in a home-constructed schooner from Honolulu to a South Pacific island.

Because he knows, loves and understands machinery, wherever he goes Keith makes friends with men of influence and power who share his interests. And he is able to complete his mission successfully when they prove willing—even eager—to place their considerable resources at his disposal.

Died Suddenly

Nevil Shute died suddenly in a Melbourne, Australia, hospital in January of this year, not long after "Trustee from the Toolroom" had been chosen for distribution by the Book-of-the-Month Club. Three of his previous novels "Ordeal" (1939), "Pastoral" (1944) and "Round the Bend" (1951) — were also Book-of-the-

Johns Hopkins university was to have left Sunday night for Bologna, Italy, where he was to dedicate a new building at the Bologna center of the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Study.

An administrative assistant said Dr. Eisenhower has had "some gastrointestinal infection and a cold" for about two weeks.

"GOING STEADY" BAN SPREADING

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (AP) — "Going steady" is going out at St. Joseph Roman Catholic High School here.

Students who go steady are banned from holding school office, taking part in athletics or other school activities.

Parish priests explained the action in sermons Sunday, saying the teen-age habit of dating one girl or boy exclusively often leads to sin and other complications.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick J. Kenny, pastor of St. Joseph church, asked parents to discourage and forbid their children from going steady at least until the last half of the senior year of high school.

TANK RUNS WILD IN KY.

CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP) — His training demonstration over, Army reserve Capt. Paul S. Burton waved off the police escort and nosed his 20-ton tank into the downtown reserve building.

In it went, and out again—right through the rear wall.

It left a 20-by-25 foot hole in the brick wall, thundered across the railroad tracks and crashed into a grocery store.

The accelerator stuck and the brakes failed, said Burton.

Other damage in Sunday's mishap:

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad tracks were blocked; a natural gas line ripped open; about $7,000 loss to the buildings and contents; and to Burton, a cut head and a bruised ego.

Month Club selections.

Shute was born Nevil Shute Norway in Ealing a London suburb, in 1899. Early in his writing career he dropped the Norway from his name.

During World War I he interrupted his studies at Balliol College, Oxford, to enlist as a private in the Sussex Regiment. After the war he returned to Oxford, graduating in 1922, and subsequently chose engineering as his profession.

Always fascinated with planes and flying, he became a licensed pilot in 1922. As recently as 1948-1949 he flew his own small plane from England to Australia and back collecting material for his books. This flight, which covered about 25,000 miles, is perhaps the longest journey ever undertaken by a noncommercial pilot in his own plane.

From 1922 to 1924 he worked as a calculator, or mathematician, for the firm of DeHavilland and in 1925 helped to design the Rigid Airship R-100 for Airship Guarantee Co., Ltd. He became her chief engineer, directed her completion and finally flew the Atlantic in the R-100 on her famous round-trip to Canada and back in 1930. Meanwhile 1926 saw the publication of his first novel "Marazan."

Founded Airplane Company

In 1931 he founded an airplane-manufacturing company, Airspeed, Ltd., and was its joint manager until 1938, when he retired from industry to concentrate on writing. He went back to work on experimental aircraft in September, 1939, but joined the Navy at the time of Dunkirk, since he felt he was too old to fly on operations and that the time for experiments was over. The Admiralty did not agree with him; two days later he was put back on experimental work for the Royal Navy. Among the many devices he created were a remote-control target and a multiple rocket for use against dive bombers.

Nevil Shute once insisted to an American friend: "I'm not a writer. Writing is my avocation." In following this avocation, however, he published more than 20 novels as well as his autobiography "Slide Rule."

After 1951 Shute lived with his wife and their two grown daughters southeast of Melbourne in the country town of Langwarrin, where, in pursuit of still another "avocation," he developed a substantial tract of grazing land and ran a dairy farm stocked with crossbred Friesian cattle.

3-HOUR CBS SYMPOSIUM HELD SUNDAY

NEW YORK (AP)—In the old days, Sunday afternoon was the special property of the intellectual crowd. Even the most self-conscious status seeker would admit—nay, boast—he turned on his set at that time.

But since the demise of "Omni-bus" and "Wide, Wide World," Sunday afternoon has been pretty much filled with odds and ends, given stature and prestige only by the occasional appearance of the New York Philharmonic and Leonard Bernstein.

CBS — and rather late too — is making a stab at changing this. Sunday it broadcast the first of three hour-long symposiums on contemporary problems, called "The Great Challenge."

Affirmative Answer
This first one was hung on the question: "Can we improve our education for leadership?"

Discussing the subject were New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, former Air Force Secretary Thomas K. Finletter, newspaperman Marquis Childs and Victor L. Butterfield, president of Wesleyan University.

They answered, of course, in the affirmative. But the discussion, thoughtful and sprightly, ranged far afield. It included generalities about the need for a sense of purpose and a specific plea that business and labor make it easier for their employees to volunteer in government jobs.

It was a good, meaty hour, but one that required pretty close concentration. It would have made a great midwinter series — it's almost unfair to launch it just when the outdoors start beckoning.

SENATE GROUP GETS GOING ON HOUSE BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sharply divided Senate Judiciary Committee, working under forced draft, starts its consideration today of the House-passed civil rights bill.

Called into closed session, it planned to hear first from Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, the administration's chief spokesman for the legislation, and Charles J. Bloch, a Macon, Ga., constitutional lawyer, as spokesmen for the opposition.

The idea was not to have a public hearing but to let Rogers and Bloch and the 15 committee members, all lawyers, argue out the pros and cons of all aspects of the five-point measure.

Sees Standoff

Outnumbered Southerners on the 15-member committee hoped to win the adoption of amendments modifying the House bill.

Other members planned to try to strengthen it, while some appeared content to leave it alone.

Sen. Norris Cotton (R-NH), a committee member, predicted the upshot will be a stand-off with the bill being returned unchanged to the Senate.

The bill was passed by the House last Thursday. The Senate promptly referred it to the Judiciary Committee, but ordered it returned to the Senate itself not later than midnight Tuesday.

This will permit the bill to be taken up for Senate consideration Wednesday, with or without any committee changes.

The core of the House bill is an administration-sponsored provision for court-appointed referees to see that Negroes are permitted to register and vote in areas where they are now barred because of racial discrimination.

JUNE 22 SET FOR TITLE BOUT

GOTENBERG, Sweden (AP) — Only a few minor details, mostly formal legalities and problems regarding the first fight, stand in the way today of a formal contract signing for the proposed June 22 heavyweight title bout between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson.

Johansson took the title from Patterson with a third-round knockout last June and neither has fought since.

Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's manager, and Thomas Bolan of the promoting Feature Sports, Inc., met here Sunday and ironed out all but the minor details. "The contract signing will take place soon in New York," Ahlquist said. "Mr. Bolan and Feature Sports have proven they will see to it that everything will be straight and just about the return fight as we want it."
